

The Eye of the Beholder

Far, far away in time and space
Of red, white and blue there is a trace
It is from precious metals we came
Once found, we were given the wrong name

In life and death, together for years
Over eons, our hopes and our fears
We were forgotten and lost to time
Again revealed, our story sublime

Over the sea and miles away
Apart it seems we now must stay
Seen there across the river is my brother
And here I'm in a city the sixth of another

To get the clue to the location of the hidden proxy, send a picture of 'me' to forgottenhistoryhunt@gmail.com, along with the answers to the following questions:

1. Who and what am I?
2. What is my real identity?
3. Where do my brother and I each reside?

Instructions and Rules:

1. This hunt has two parts. The first riddle is armchair and reveals the prize for the hunt. The second part (via email), once solved, is BOTG to find the proxy item.
2. When you have solved the riddle, send the solution and answers to the questions, to me at forgottenhistoryhunt@gmail.com
3. When I receive your correct answer, I will send you the clues to the location of the proxy item.
4. Go to that location (or send someone) and retrieve the proxy item.
5. E-mail me proof that you have found the proxy item. Proof must include:
 - Your Mysterious Writings username.
 - The name of the location.
 - A photo of the proxy item where it is found.
6. If you feel you have the correct location but find the proxy item missing, send a photo of the exact place you looked. If I do not receive a valid submission with photo of the proxy item from another hunter within 24 hours of your submission, you will be awarded the prize.
7. The first person to submit a photo of the proxy item and the location, along with their Mysterious Writings username will win the treasure.
8. The photo of the proxy must be submitted by the same person who sent me the correct answer to the original riddle, and must be a member of the Mysterious Writings Forum.
9. Do not have your BOTG submit the photo to me. If you use someone else to retrieve the proxy, they can keep the proxy item as their prize, but you must submit the photo and solution.
10. Winner must have a U.S. address.
